Praise- Psalm 145

“All prayer, pursued far enough, becomes praise. Any prayer, no matter how desperate its origin, no matter how angry and fearful the experiences it traverses, ends up in praise. It does not always get there quickly or easily--the trip can take a lifetime--but the end is always praise.” Eugene Peterson, Answering God.

Memorize Psalm 145

Could memorizing Psalm 145 add to the ways you praise God in prayer? As you dwell in God’s Word, committing it to memory, you will be abiding with him in a powerful way. As a way to approach this, consider Beth Moore’s advice when she challenged people to memorize the entire book of James.

ABIDE....

Ask God for the supernatural ability to memorize it

Believe you can do it

Increase your portion each week.

- Write verses out on index cards, adding more verses each week
- Choose a translation that speaks to you
- Set weekly goals for yourself

Determine a set time each day to practice

Enjoy it! The living Word of God is coming alive in you

“So is my word that goes out from my mouth: It will not return to me empty” -Isaiah 55:11
